

COMING SOON! XANH a film directed by Sal Tran

XANH: The Movie explores the experiences and struggles of a genderqueer youth in the Asian/Pacific Islander Queer community. This compelling and insightful film will premiere at the Sundance Film Festival.

Join us for an exclusive viewing of the movie preview and a discussion with the Director, Sal Tran, and the Producer, Xanh. Both Sal and Xanh are young, queer, API individuals making their mark on the film industry.

Saturday, June 10th at 10am
Alum Rock United Methodist Church
30 Kirk Ave, San Jose CA
FREE LUNCH is provided!

You are invited to join us as Sal and Xanh provide us with discussion of real life experiences and insight into the Asian/Pacific Islander Queer community. This is a Free Event and we welcome ALL people. Youth and Young Adults are especially welcome 😊

XANH synopsis

Clothing is a form of liberation for genderqueer Xanh. Their mother is a Vietnamese seamstress who polices Xanh's gender presentation through the creation of feminine clothes. As their mom continuously criticizes their wardrobe, Xanh experiences a series of nightmares that pushes them to search for peace within.
